

Collaborations

1990-2000

1990s

"Alma Mater, Mother Dear...." Alumnae from Notre Dame Alameda, Belmont, San Francisco and San Jose, enjoy working together in the California State Federation of Notre Dame Alumnae. Over the years the Federation sponsored many creative musical events and fashion shows and raised more than $125,000 for the retired Sisters of Notre Dame.

Happy alums at an event!

1992

Sr. Georgianna Coonis begins a long-term work with the "I Have a Dream" program sponsored by a group of Stanford MBA students for at-risk students in East Palo Alto.

As mentor, friend and advocate, Sr. Georgi helps these young Dreamers to graduate from high school and enroll in college.

Sr. Georgi Coonis with one of her Dreamers.

1991

In gratitude for 125 years in San Francisco!

Graduates, teachers, parents, pastors and friends of Mission Dolores and Notre Dame Elementary and High Schools celebrate Notre Dame's incredibly rich educational history in "the City"—founding days, rebirth after the 1906 earthquake, changes, growth and enduring friendships. Despite Notre Dame High School's closing in 1981, the spirit lives on!

High school students pose one last time in 1981.

1994

Sr. Jeanette Braun serves as the first Director of Notre Dame – AmeriCorps in the San Francisco Bay Area. Dedicated young people assist in low-income schools and neighborhoods.

Sr. Jeanette Braun (center, back) with a team of NDA volunteers.

Photos courtesy of the SND Archives, California Province.