hearts wide as the world: together making a difference

Dear Friend,

Happy Catholic Schools Week! I hope you have happy memories of any Catholic School you attended and will consider supporting it. Below you'll find links to share memories of your experiences at Notre Dame schools and to look up Sisters who taught you.

It was both an honor and a pleasure to have the SND Congregational Leadership Team in California recently. Enjoy the photos of their visit!

Catholic Schools Week 2018

Did you attend a Notre Dame school?

This is the week that Catholic Schools are celebrated. Why not contact your school\(s\) to express your appreciation and offer your support? And if the school isn't operating anymore, you can still share your memories with other alumni by leaving a comment on the school's legacy webpage.
